KINGS PRAIRIE

1910. We are supposed to be one year older than when we last wrote. We feel larger and stronger both in body and mind except our appetite that was overtaxed on account of two big days coming so close together.

Mrs. Charley Jackson left a few days ago to visit her father, Mr. Lowdre, who lives near Neosho. Her mother has been quite ill for some time.

E. R. Stribling has been conducting a protracted meeting at Mt. Pleasant Church, five miles south of Purdy Although the weather has been unfavorable large congregations were in attendance and a deep interest was manifest d Up to last Sunday it is reported that over a score had been converted and the interest was unabated.

of the past year, what has been Ave. Phone 424. Free Tests to given and what has been taken All, away, that has come under our own observation, but we cannot comprehend what may be the results of the coming year. The good book'says all earthly things sha'l abide with you forever. Then let us hold fast to that

Mrs. B. S. Stribling, who had been quite ill for a month is now able to be up most of the time.

Uncle Dan, who had been on a months visit to his brother in Indiana has returned.

We notice Billy Brine has set apart about fourteen New Year resolutions. Oh, My! Joe never could stand so many sudden reforms at once. He has resolved to eat, drink and be merry another year if nothing hapens.

We understand that Mr. Brocksmith from near Freistatt bought a mare of B. S. Stribling a few days ago, paying $150.00.

The freeze and sleet makes the wheat look yellow. It is looking rather sickly.

The mother-in-law of Mr. Gray who lives north-east of Monett died last Monday and was buried at the Kings Prairie cemetery. Rev. Qualls conducted the services at New Liberty Church Emery Smith, teacher of the Prairie school was pleasantly surprised Churismas eve when just before closing, one of the pupils presented him with a beautiful gold plated watch fob in behalf of the school. Each scholar old and young had contributed.

In a recent issue of the Times we noticed an extract from a printers prayey. Joe has been impressed with that prayer and has been getting it by heart, all but two words, which our Sunday school superintendent said were two strong. Now we offer a protest against that prayer because it is one sided. It never had a work of relief for the brain racked rural scribes. It even referred to Job. Now what does a few biles amount to when they double his wages afterwards. Just think, most of us never got past baker in Webster's blue back. When we sit down on our wooden stool, burning the midnight taper, with pencil and tablet before us, a dictionary beside us, and try to call in the wandering of our miads from over a benighted community, all the ups and downs - more downs than ups in our desperation we forget that there is a higher being than the chief Editor that sits in his easy chair with knife in one hand and clippers in the ther ready to dissect all incomng messages, when we have ansas and Missouri also to Mem | written our last paaagraph and phis, Ten., on the basis of one and attached our false signature and one-third of the standard one way put the U.
